Annual Report 2007–2008

Our Mission

Blackburn Center actively advocates for the rights of all people to live free from violence and oppression in their homes and communities and provides supportive services to survivors of all forms of domestic violence and sexual assault.

Welcome

Welcome to the first edition of Blackburn Center's Annual Report on the web. This move to an electronic version of the Annual Report is in response to:

- Our desire to invest as many resources as possible in services to clients and education in the community; and
- Our commitment to being good stewards not only of financial resources, but also of natural resources.

If this format doesn't meet your needs, please let us know and we'll send you a hard copy. To make this request, call 724-837-9540, x 104.

In the following pages of this report, you will find:

Funding

Blackburn Center programs are funded in part by: Pennsylvania Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Pennsylvania Coalition Against Rape, Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency, Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare through the Westmoreland County Commissioners, United Way of Westmoreland County, foundations, local businesses, civic groups, and ... people like you.

CHALLENGE THE POWER. DEMAND CHANGE.

Domestic and sexual violence are rooted in an imbalance of power between men and women. Our society accepts violence against women as normal and inevitable. For Blackburn Center to fulfill its mission to end domestic and sexual violence, we must challenge this imbalance of power that supports the oppression of women.
